

Airing the Anti-Kerry documentary so close to the election is tantamount to free advertising for the Bush campaign. Sinclair Broadcasting must be told to refrain from airing the program. If they choose to air the program despite FCC and Congressional opposition, then I propose they show "Fahrenheit 9/11" the following night or week to compensate.

Thank you for your support of my views.

Sincerely,

Lynn Aguado